

ESSEX CAR MAKES RECORD TRIP TO HOOSIER CAPITAL

Dave Boswell and Dr. Crumpacker Make It in Three Hours.

Driving a stock Essex touring car, D. A. Boswell, local Essex dealer, on Thursday established a new record for the trip from South Bend to Indianapolis, making the distance of 158 miles in three hours and seven minutes actual running time. Mr. Boswell was accompanied by Dr. C. B. Crumpacker, who acted as official timekeeper.

The new record was made almost entirely on dirt roads, there being but a mile and one-half of paved highway on the route that was taken in the record-breaking trip. Leaving South Bend at 5 o'clock in the morning the car made its first stop at Rochester for gasoline. At Fulton the car was held up for 17 minutes by a freight train and more time was lost at Boylston at a railroad crossing. The last stop was made at Resneton, where the oil supply was replenished. The car arrived at Indianapolis at 8 o'clock, 61 minutes having been deducted for unavoidable stops.

According to Dr. Crumpacker, the timekeeper, all time was counted out by means of a stop watch in order to give the most accurate time possible.

Essex dealers from all over the state made the drive from their branches to the R. V. Law Motor Co. show rooms at Indianapolis, state Essex distributors. The run was made to celebrate "Essex week," which was observed throughout the country.

According to the official records at the Law showrooms in Indianapolis, Mr. Boswell made the best time of any Indiana dealer. Nearly 20 records have been broken in various parts of the country by Essex cars during the past week, according to telegrams received by the Superior Motor Sales Co.

AMERICAN WINS WORLD TITLE

William T. Tilden Takes Tennis Championship From Australian.

LONDON, July 3.—William T. Tilden, American tennis star, won the world's championship at Wimbledon today from Gerald Patterson of Australia, last year's champion, by scores of 2-6, 6-3, 6-2 and 6-4.

The American had trouble getting started and was outplayed in the opening set. Americans in the big crowd of spectators feared a lame knee, which threatened to keep the American out of the challenge round, would frustrate the first real chance that America had ever had to win the championship.

In the second, however, Tilden found himself and opened with the spectacular game that marked his play all through the tournament. He took the second set at 6-3 and kept up the pace in the third and fourth sets, winning the match and the championship by scores of 6-2 and 6-4.

Livingston's

Draws Pen Picture of Bryan's Great Battle

Woman Member Gives Vivid Description of Fight Over Platform on Convention Floor.

By MRS. KELLOGG FAIRBANKS, Member Executive Committee Democratic National Committee.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—

Glimpse: Platform submitted and a fight on Mr. Bryan within 10 feet, opening the minority report, mellow voiced and mellifluous.

The crowd is so glad to see him that it is difficult for him to start, but, one he is off, stillness. He reads his recommendations.

He is followed by Mr. Bourke Cockran, who seizes this opportunity to make a last desperate plea for light wines and beer. He is brilliant and powerful and gifted with a rich flow of eloquence muddled by the essential earthiness of his argument. After him Mr. Bryan is like a large placid lake, absorbing and purifying all little streams.

Mr. Bryan, great-hearted, human, clear-minded, plausible, sentimental and wily as a dove. He is speaking with an expense of vitality which leaves him breathless, and makes one realize that he is getting older. Growing old, yes, but swaying the fickle emotions of men, and getting shame-faced, defiant New Yorkers on their feet to testify, amid cheers, that they are glad the saloon is done forever. He is the most lovable public man in the world. One may question his wisdom but never his essential honesty of soul. One may agree with him or not—today, mostly not—one may think him inspired or misled, but one may concede that his people love him.

A roar of affectional applause swells out as he finishes, and presently the states begin to march. One by one they bring their standards to him on the platform, and he takes "Nebraska" and stands with the staff in his hand. They come on—first the dry states, then slowly but inevitably the others. Through it all Mr. Bryan still a little breathless, with smiling eyes that keep watch on states, stands waiting. He never forgets what he wants in the excitement of his great ovation.

Like a Banquet Speaker.

He is followed by the secretary of state who speaks as if he were at a banquet, instead of standing on the prow of the platform, overlooking the hungry and clamorous crowds. He makes his points with great precision and a fine use of his humor. His wit is like a rapier and it leaves a keen wound. The senator from Virginia comes next, opposing the great orator, and getting away with it. He has already read the platform to the convention an exhausting performance in itself and he and the other men who have been working on it have not slept for three days; his voice is hoarse, but he is high strung, vibrant and every inch of him a

"BACK TO WORK" IS VITAL NEED OF GERMAN PEOPLE

Restoration of Normal Economic Status Called Most Important.

By United Press:

BERLIN, July 3.—Germany will not agree to any allied proposal made at Spa which the German people feel they will be unable to fulfill, Foreign Minister Simons told the reichstag foreign affairs committee today. He said the most pressing problem facing Germany was restoration of a normal economic basis and return of the German people to their work.

Simons outlined the internal situation, stressing the need for raw materials and credits. Herr Helfferich, speaking before the reichstag meeting caused a stir by declaring the treaty would not have been so drastic if the entire German nation had stood behind the government leaders who held out against signing the document. He blamed Matthias Erzberger for the harsh terms, saying Erzberger had promised the entire that the treaty would be signed in any event.

Men Not Yet Named. Finance Minister Wirth declared such talk at the present time was against the national interest, especially in view of German hopes for concessions from the allies at the forthcoming Spa conference. The government has not yet named the bankers and business men who will go to Spa. It was believed they will be sent after the conference opens, in the capacity of experts rather than official delegates, providing the entente approves such a plan.

A motion to adjourn! Horrors sweep over the friends of the leading candidates. It is put up to the delegates and carried by the chairman. They have been in session since 10 o'clock in the morning, and it is now 9 o'clock at night.

Through it all the republican senator from California, Mr. Hiram Johnson, sat inconspicuously beside the platform, but one may wonder what he thought all day.
